NOTIFICATION FOR WORLD LEPROSY DAY

This to inform you that the College of Nursing, SGRR will observe World Leprosy Day on [mention date] to create awareness about leprosy, promote compassion, and remove social stigma associated with the disease.

On this occasion, various activities such as educational visit, awareness talks, poster making, slogan writing, and discussions will be organized to educate students about prevention, treatment, and social inclusion.

All students are encouraged to participate actively and make this awareness program meaningful and impactful.

Details of the Visit:

Date: January 30, 2026

Time: 09:00 am onwards

Place: Raphael Leprosy Center, Dehradun

The visit aims to enhance students' understanding of social responsibility, empathy, and community service through real-life exposure and interaction.

Students are required to be in proper college uniform and follow all instructions given by the accompanying teachers. Let us come together to spread awareness, empathy, and respect for all.
