The School of Education, SGRRU, Pathribag Campus, marked a significant milestone in inclusive education by signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Latika Roy Foundation on January 31, 2025. The event witnessed the presence of esteemed dignitaries, faculty members, and representatives emphasizing the importance of this collaboration.

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by Dr. Lokesh Gambhir, Registrar of SGRR University, Prof. Malvika Sati Kandpal, Dean School of Education SGRR University and Ms. Rupa Bishnoi, representing the Latika Roy Foundation. The occasion was graced by the presence of Honourable Vice-Chancellor SGRRU Prof. Kumud Saklani. Coordinator of the MoU program Dr. Ritu Sinha, Assistant Professor School of Education. Other faculty members from the School of Education, including Prof. Anand Kumar, Prof. Balbir Kaur, Dr. Rekha Dhyani, Dr. Priyanka Upadhyay, and Ms. Rakhi Chauhan, were present to witness this significant collaboration.

Significance of the Collaboration

The MoU represents a commitment to promoting inclusive education and capacity building for future educators. The Latika Roy Foundation has been a leading organization in advocating for children with disabilities, ensuring they receive the necessary support, care, and education. The School of Education, SGRRU, shares a similar vision, aiming to equip future educators with the knowledge, skills, and empathy required to teach diverse learners effectively.

Objectives and Benefits of the MoU

1. Knowledge Exchange: The partnership will provide students and faculty with practical experience in working with differently-abled children.
2. Capacity Building: Through workshops, training sessions, and field visits, aspiring teachers will develop essential skills to support diverse learning needs.

3. Research & Development: The collaboration will facilitate joint research initiatives focused on best practices in inclusive education, benefiting both academia and society.

Commitment to Inclusive Education

Inclusive education goes beyond policies—it is a mindset that ensures every child, regardless of ability, has access to meaningful learning opportunities. This partnership is a reflection of the shared vision between the two institutions to create an education system that is accessible, compassionate, and effective for all learners.

Closing Remarks

The event concluded with a note of gratitude towards the Latika Roy Foundation for their trust and collaboration. The partnership is expected to have a profound impact on students, faculty, and the broader community by fostering an inclusive and equitable educational environment. Both institutions look forward to a fruitful and enduring association that will strengthen inclusive education practices.

With this collaboration, School of Education SGRRU and the Latika Roy Foundation reaffirm their commitment to building a more inclusive and compassionate education system for all.
