Report of the event

Introduction

Effective communication skills, particularly in English, have become essential for success in today's professional environment. Recognizing the challenges faced by students from Hindi medium backgrounds, the Training and Placement Cell of Shri Guru Ram Rai University organized a Special Spoken English Classes Program from 16th December to 21st December 2024. The primary focus of the initiative was to support these students in overcoming language barriers, enhancing their verbal communication skills, and increasing their self-confidence to participate actively in academic and placement-related activities.

This six-day intensive training program aimed to provide a nurturing and motivating environment where students could practice spoken English through practical, engaging, and student-friendly sessions. By offering structured and interactive guidance, the program served as a stepping stone for students to transition smoothly into English-speaking academic and professional settings.

Objectives of the Program

The Special Spoken English Classes Program was designed with clear and achievable objectives that aligned with the goals of the Placement Cell and the overall development of the students:

- To bridge the language gap faced by students from Hindi medium backgrounds by providing them with an accessible learning platform.
- To develop fluency and confidence in speaking English through real-time practice and trainer feedback.
- To prepare students for campus placements, group discussions, interviews, and workplace interactions where English communication plays a vital role.
- To reduce hesitation and fear of speaking English in public or formal situations.

- To encourage active participation in academic discussions, seminars, and professional networking.

Program Highlights

- Program Duration: 6 Days
- Dates: 16th December to 21st December 2024
- Mode: Offline, conducted at the university premises
- Sessions per Day: Two sessions (Morning and Afternoon) with activities, exercises, and presentations
- Total Hours of Training: Approximately 18 hours of intensive spoken English training

Key Topics Covered in the Sessions:

- Fundamentals of English grammar and sentence formation
- Vocabulary building and contextual word usage
- Pronunciation correction and fluency enhancement
- Daily conversation and situation-based dialogue practice
- Role plays, storytelling, and one-on-one speaking drills
- Group discussions on trending topics to encourage debate and expression
- Confidence-building through public speaking and mock interviews
- Personality grooming and body language basics for interview readiness

The sessions were structured progressively, starting from the basics and moving towards more advanced and practical communication exercises. Each day concluded with interactive tasks and personalized feedback.

Resource Persons

The program was conducted by a team of experienced faculty members and professional communication trainers associated with the university. These trainers brought in a mix of academic knowledge and industry-relevant communication training experience. Their teaching approach focused on student engagement, participatory learning, and confidence-building rather than rote memorization. Their efforts were instrumental in creating a supportive environment that encouraged even shy and hesitant students to speak up and participate.

Participation and Student Engagement

The program received an overwhelming response from students across various disciplines, including BBA, BCA, BSc, MBA, and BA. More than 80 students registered for the program, and the daily attendance remained consistently high, reflecting the enthusiasm and interest of the participants.

The sessions witnessed active student participation through:

- Peer-to-peer learning and discussions
- Group activities and games designed to enhance language usage
- Daily reflection and learning feedback by the students
- On-spot speaking challenges and quiz rounds to foster competitive spirit

Students showed remarkable improvement in their ability to speak in English with clarity and confidence. By the end of the program, a noticeable transformation was observed in their body language, tone, and sentence structuring abilities.

Feedback and Outcomes

At the conclusion of the program, students were invited to share their feedback through a formal feedback form and open interaction. The feedback collected was overwhelmingly positive, with many students expressing gratitude for organizing such a need-based initiative.

Key Highlights from Feedback:

- Over 90% of students rated the program as “Excellent” in terms of usefulness.
- Students appreciated the friendly approach of trainers, who made learning English enjoyable and stress-free.
- Many expressed that the program helped them overcome their fear of public speaking.
- Students requested that such programs be conducted more frequently or incorporated into regular academic schedules.

Several students also reported feeling more confident about participating in upcoming placement drives, internship interviews, and group discussions.

Conclusion

The Special Spoken English Classes Program was a significant step taken by the Training and Placement Cell to empower students from Hindi medium backgrounds and ensure inclusivity in professional training. The six-day program not only helped bridge the language gap but also instilled confidence and a positive attitude in the participants.

This initiative stands as a testimony to Shri Guru Ram Rai University's commitment to holistic student development, skill enhancement, and career readiness. The Training and Placement Cell aims to continue organizing similar programs in the future to meet the evolving needs of students and help them excel in their professional journeys.
