Report of the event

Introduction

The Training and Placement Department of Shri Guru Ram Rai University, in association with the Naandi Foundation, successfully conducted the Cambridge University English Proficiency Test on March 17, 2025. This initiative was designed to assess and strengthen the English language proficiency of students, offering them an opportunity to obtain an internationally recognized certification.

About the Test

The 30-minute online test, developed by Cambridge University, assessed students' reading, writing, and listening skills through a structured and globally standardized format. The test not only evaluated current proficiency levels but also provided participants with feedback to help them identify areas of improvement.

Participation and Certification

The event witnessed strong participation, with a significant number of students taking the test—demonstrating their interest in enhancing communication skills vital for both academic and professional success.

- Each successful participant was awarded the Cambridge University English Proficiency Certificate, which was issued online.
- This globally recognized credential enhances the students' profiles for future job opportunities, higher education, and international mobility.

Venue and Execution

The test was conducted at the Seminar Hall, SMCS Building, in a well-organized and technically equipped setting. The event was smoothly managed by the Training and Placement Department, ensuring:

- Proper coordination
- Timely registration and support
- Seamless technical execution

The Training and Placement Department also ensured that students received assistance throughout the test process, maintaining a conducive and stress-free environment.

Conclusion

The Cambridge University English Proficiency Test provided students with an excellent platform to assess and validate their English language abilities, furthering their academic and career aspirations.

This initiative aligns with Shri Guru Ram Rai University's mission to equip students with global competencies. The Training and Placement Department remains committed to facilitating such skill-enhancement programs to ensure students are career-ready and internationally competitive.
