Workshop: "Opportunities and scope in the age of Agritech as Career Opportunity for women entrepreneurs"

Dr Priyanka B Rawat Dean -SAS Dr Dwarika P Maithani Director: IIC

About the Workshop

On Wednesday, February 15th, 2023, we hosted a Workshop on 'Opportunities and Scope in the Age of Agritech as a Career Path for Women Entrepreneurs'. The event featured insightful lectures delivered by Dr. Neha, President of FICCI FLO Uttarakhand Chapter, and Mrs. Anuradha Malla, Chairperson of FICCI FLO Uttarakhand Chapter. They articulated the vision of FICCI FLO Uttarakhand Chapter, emphasizing its commitment to providing opportunities, skills, education, and a supportive environment for women to empower their lives. They discussed the mission, which aimed at establishing sustainable links to markets, navigating state policies for women entrepreneurs, and facilitating their growth to compete at the highest level. The overarching motto for the year is 'honing skills,' an endeavor that's challenging to articulate but incredibly significant a narrative to be retold, rewritten, and repainted, reflecting the grandeur of the journey ahead. The envisioned plans involve creating social impact by offering financial assistance, fostering skill development, and promoting digital literacy. These initiatives aim to unveil the essence of women across various domains, including art, culture, caregiving, hospitality, culinary arts, commerce, and industries. We are on an exciting and adventurous journey, with Uttarakhand already soaring high. Our goal is to shine brighter, illuminating the lives of every woman and capturing the world's attention.

Dr. Dwarika P. Maithani, Director-IIC, shed light on the significance of the International Year of Millets and highlighted the medicinal value of millets due to their unique chemical composition, particularly their high fiber content. His lecture emphasized the necessity to process millet into diverse food products.

Mrs. Dhami and other CEOs shared their success stories as entrepreneurs/startup founders. Mrs. Dhami elaborated on their millet-based products, such as bread, while underscoring the potential of millets in various culinary items.

adherents of Chishty Sufism.

The theme of the Dastangoi was Sama (meaning the sound of wisdom) or Sufi songs. In Sama, the singing component of production; qault was performed, followed by galaam (of Harrat Ameer Khustau) and culminated with rang. Danish Hilal Khan, a renowned Singer from Dilli Gharana showed his depth, full throatal command and vast oeuver; and played the pivotal role in the production.

Dastangoi ior storytelling) was performed by Syed Muizz Chishty, a Sufi and a direct descendent of Prophet Mohammed. This was his first ever performance on stage and he appeared at ease and home with his . faultless narration and clear diction. Words and narration came naturally to him, since he is a disciple of Sufi Hazrat Ryuzuddin Chishty and a Sufi Spiritual Imam or Guru and Gaddi Hazrat Nasheen of Khwaja Moinuddin Chishty Habibullah (of Aimer Sharif), Sufi Hazrat Syed Ryazuddin Chishty says "India is a land of myriad faiths and World-rereligions. nowned Sufi Saint Hazrat Moinuddin Khwaia Chishti (Habiballah) has laid the foundation of Ganga Jamani Tehreeb in India. People of different faiths lived harmoniously with each other. Sufism has added its own mysticism and traditions to this melting pot of Indian culture - which gives it a different flavor and fragrance than most other cultures. This complete intermingling has helped create a unique brew what we now know as "the Ganga Jamuni calture", "the syncretic teluseeb" or "Unity in diversity" that India is farnous for and
