

Report on Student Participation in "Utsav Abhivyakti"

Organized by: Amar Ujala

Activity: Utsav Abhivyakti – A Celebration of Expression

Students from Shri Guru Ram Rai University actively participated in the event "Utsav Abhivyakti", organized by Amar Ujala, which served as a vibrant platform for creativity, expression, and learning.

Objective of the Event:

To provide students a public stage to showcase their talent, build confidence, and develop communication, performance, and creative skills through various cultural and expressive activities.

Student Learning and Outcomes:

During the event, students engaged in multiple expressive forms such as:

- Debate and Public Speaking
- Poetry Recitation and Storytelling
- Theatre and Role Play
- Art, Painting, and Craft Displays
- Dance and Musical Performances

Through their participation, students learned:

- The importance of self-expression in a public forum.
- Teamwork, coordination, and stage confidence.
- How to express ideas creatively through speech, art, and performance.
- Improved interpersonal communication and audience engagement.
- Exposure to media and public interaction, enhancing their practical understanding of cultural journalism.

Conclusion:

The experience was enriching and motivating for the students, helping them move beyond the classroom into real-life platforms of expression. The School of Education appreciates Amar Ujala for organizing this meaningful initiative and looks forward to future collaborations that nurture student potential and personality development.
